BASEBALL, AUTOS,
LAWN TENNIS, GOLFFAST LIGHTWEIGHT AND
HIS MANAGER ARRIVE IN OGDEN FROM FORT WORTH

"Pete" Kild Marlow, the fast lightweight scrapper of Chicago, and his manager B. E. Hampton arrived in Ogden this morning from Fort Worth, Texas, where he defeated Bobby Waugh, the lightweight champion of the south, in a 15-round go February 12. Marlow is a well-built boy and he is a clean liver. He does not use tobacco in any form. He has been in the game three years and has never taken the total count of ten. When asked this morning about his boy beating Gilbert, Marlow's manager replied: "Well I hope Gilbert is a clean scrapper and that he is in condition. Marlow is always wanting to mix and if the other boy will the fans will see one of the prettiest scraps they have ever witnessed. When I say I hope a boy is a clean scrapper I say it only for the fans. If all of the boys that are Proceeds of Championship Tournaments to Be Turned Over to War Department.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—By an almost unanimous vote the United States Lawn Tennis association decided at its annual meeting here tonight to resume championship tournaments, the proceeds to be turned over to the war department's commission on training camp activities.

The 1918 national outdoor championships were awarded as follows: Men's singles, West Side club, Forest Hills, N. Y.; men's doubles, Longwood Cricket club, Boston; women's singles, doubles, mixed doubles and girls' championships, Philadelphia Country club, Philadelphia.

The Clay Court championships were awarded to the Western association, to be played at Chicago, and the national junior championships to the West Side club at Forest Hills, N. Y. The national indoor championships for 1919, junior, boys, men's and women's, went to the Seventh regiment, New York City.

The treasurer's report showed a little more than $20,000, invested in bonds and on deposit, with total assets of $34,281. The expenses for last season were approximately $10,000 and receipts $5000. The deficit was due to the lack of income from national and international tournaments.

The report of the ambulance fund committee showed that close to $50,000 had been obtained by subscription and exhibition matches. Two sections of twenty ambulances each were in course of preparation, it was stated.

An amendment adopted adds one-sixteenth of an inch in diameter and one-sixteenth of an ounce in weight to the present average of the balls used in tournaments.

The executive committee was instructed to investigate and report upon the equalization of voting power, and it was resolved that a committee be appointed to study and consider the various conditions involved in the present amateur rule, and to report at the next annual meeting.

COMISKEY HAS TWO MEN IN READINESS

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Assuming that Chick Gandil's bad knee goes back to him, an assumption that is apt to become a reality any day Chick steps on the ball field, there is going to be a torrid little scrap put up for the honor of guarding first base for the Chicago White Sox in 1918. The contending parties will be Ted Jourdan, already introduced to Chicago fans, and Fred Henry, a youth who is coming up from the St. Joseph club, of the Western league.

Gandil, whose mighty mace was a factor in winning the world's series last year, was the Pale Horse, converted through feeble knee. During the world's series the condition of his knee was carefully concealed from the Giants in order that he might not be the center of an attack that might cripple him and weaken the Comiskey crew.

Chick has written Boss Rowland that he is in good shape this year and does not expect further trouble from his weak knee. If Chick is right about it there will be no first base job open with the Sox, for it would take a very good youngster to displace him. If Chick is wrong, however, then Jourdan and Henry will stage their little argument.

Jourdan was with the White Sox last season, and on the few occasions when he got a chance to show exhibited considerable ability.

By a trick of fate Henry comes from the same league and the same club (St. Joseph) that developed Jourdan. Now they are to be rivals for either a first place or a substitute berth with the White Sox.

Henry is 22 years old, has an altitude of six feet, and is left-handed in the field and at bat. Last year he was in 132 games, was at bat 483 times, made 55 runs, 143 hits, 26 doubles, 6 triples, 3 home runs, 15 sacrifice hits and stole 17 bases. His batting average was .296.

Henry may not be able to duplicate this record with the Sox even if he gets into the game regularly, but Manager Rowland considers him a very good prospect. In fact, Rowland liked Henry's advance appearance so well that he cut loose from Bob Hasbrouck, a very capable young player, in order to make room for the Western league recruit. Hasbrouck, a first baseman, was sent to Pat Flaherty's Mobile club.

WINGSHOT HANDICAP
FOR THE AMATEURS

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 15.—The National Amateur Wing Shot handicap, today's feature event of the fourteenth annual midwinter trap shoot, was won by Elmer Henshaw of Spirit Lake, Ia., from a field of forty-six marksmen. Henshaw and Roy Ainsworth of Larned, Kan., each hit fifteen targets straight, Henshaw capturing the event in the shoot-off with eight hits straight, while Ainsworth missed his eighth.

William Wetleaf, Nicholas, Ia., won the interstate individual target cup race, breaking 88 out of a possible 100. George Nichols of Kansas City broke 90 targets in this event, but was ineligible to win the $100 trophy by reason of his having cashed it in at a previous tournament.

The international amateur wing shot championship, the big event of the shoot, is scheduled for tomorrow with twenty entries already in and others expected, making the purse at least $2000.

MANY TO SLING
COIN ON DEMPSEY

Jack Demonstrates to Critics and Fans His Ability to Put Up Good Fight.

(By Eddie Geiger.)
CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—When Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey came together in the ring for the heavyweight championship and Willard already has made overtures for a contest—there will be no few Chicagoans who will string their coin on the Dempsey person.

Dempsey is here and to the satisfaction of not only the critics of this city, but the fans also, he demonstrated in his few clashes in these parts that he is the man to beat anything up to Willard and it is a draw proposition, with many favoring Dempsey to even count there.

From Kansas City came the word today, and from Willard himself, that he is ready to do battle, and for a purse. The Red Cross has declined to handle the match he proposed for the benefit of the soldiers or their cause, so he has thrown open his services to the highest bidder.

Jess wired Tom Andrews of Milwaukee informing him that he is ready to do battle with the best man the public might select, and named July 4 and Milwaukee as his choice for the affair.

On February 25 Dempsey meets Bill Brennan and the betting odds here are 2 to 1 that Dempsey wins. Some time in May Dempsey and Fred Fulton will clash, unless Fred backs down, and again Dempsey will rule favorite.

Chicagoans think Fulton is made to order for Jack. My opinion is that he is. Every scrap finds something new in Dempsey.

BIG LEAGUERS MUST CARRY OWN BAGGAGE

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Another problem was settled by the baseball moguls attending the American league meeting here. Miller Huggins of the Yankees and Hugh Jennings of the Detroit club, taking the lead, gave orders for a supply of special suitcases

AT FEATHER CROWN

Alvie Miller.

Alvie Miller, the Lorain, O., featherweight star, has been taken under the wing of Jimmy Dunn, manager of Johnny Kilbane, the feather champ who is now an instructor at Camp Sherman. Dunn is said to consider Miller the best 122-pound boy in the game now that Kilbane is in temporary retirement, and Miller's friends believe that if Kilbane does not return to active boxing the title will fall to Alvie.

for each of the players. It was believed that owing to the railroad congestion it would be impossible for the men to carry trunks on the trips next season.

President Dunn of the Cleveland club and Jack Hendricks, manager of the Cardinals, also gave their orders when they saw the benefits of the special uniform and outfit carriers.

SEALS TO TRAIN
SOON AT FRESNO

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—The Seals will train at Fresno next month. This was settled at a conference between Hen Berry and L. R. Payne of Fresno today. The squad will arrive in the Raisin City either March 3 or 4 and play the Sun Maids the following Saturday. The next day, Sunday, they will play a picked team. The men will stay in Fresno until March 25.

Saturday and Sunday, March 16 and 17, the Seals will play the marines, led by Rod Murphy, and on the following Saturday and Sunday they will hook up with Swede Risberg's bunch from the Presidio. As both of these teams have a number of professional players in their ranks, the Seals will have to hump themselves to win.

Cliff McCall will attend to the San Francisco booking for the Fresno team and he will close up the details for the games with the marines and soldiers.

Jerry Downs attended the conference and he said he would take twenty-five men to Fresno and train them hard for three weeks. He plans to have the team back in San Francisco, March 26.

Del Howard was on the job at the office of the Oakland ball park today, sending out contracts to the men under reserve to the club and getting a line on the youngsters who will try out for him. Del plans to take twenty-five men to Boyes Springs, March 3, and stay until the 20th. He will then come home to meet the marines and the Chicago Cubs, and if the weather is nice he will stay at Oakland until the opening of the season.

Rod Murphy, former captain of the Oaks, is now leading the marines, and he will take a keen delight in throwing the hooks into his old playmates, but the Oaks ought to be in pretty good shape after three weeks at the springs.

Howard has about a dozen young fellows on the string who have been recommended, and he will ask them to report at the Oakland ball yard next Saturday. He will get a chance to size them up, and only those who look promising will be asked to make the trip to the springs.

MORAN MUST NOT USE SAME TACTICS IN BOUT WITH FULTON AS HE DID WITH
COFFEY OR HE WILL LOSE, SAYS REFEREE

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Bill Brown, the referee, thinks there is a way for Frank Moran to make Freddie Fulton run out of the ring when they meet at New Orleans.

Bill has refereed bouts in which both of these big middle distaters have taken part, and he has had a fine chance to study their styles, and speculate on what chance each one has against the other.

"If Moran keeps close, and keeps after Fulton, he can win," says Bill. "I know that Frank is a gamster and inclined to let the other fellow wear himself out. And though this may be a show of grit, it will not do against Fulton—not with Moran pulling it."

"If Moran steps off and boxes Fulton, as he tried to do with Jim Coffey, Fulton will whip him. Fulton can beat anybody who will give him a target for that left hand."

"Billy Miske had the right idea when he fought Fred. He kept after the big fellow. He didn't give him a chance to land that left squarely. Close and very busy, that's the idea for Moran, and I know he can fight that way. He proved it when he fought Cowler."

"Moran is hit a lot about the head, but most of the blows that land are glancing blows. He has a habit of swinging his head with a punch, and I expect to see him create all sorts of trouble for Fulton if he uses this kind of a system. I think that if he keeps close he can make Fulton jump over the ropes, now what do you know about that?"

Bill Brown isn't the sort of a dude who spouts off just to hear himself making a noise. He seldom talks long or loud, but when he does he generally says something, and he is sincere in this.

When it comes right down to the polished tactics, Fulton isn't the bucko who likes punishment in the midsection. It gets his goat and his wind. It is a tender spot with Fulton, and Moran will do well to follow Brown's advice if he can. Of course, Big Fred may hold him off and straighten him up with that left hand, and it seems that this plan of action is his salvation.

Over the twenty-round distance somebody ought to go down when these two birds meet. Moran is a one-handed battler and Fulton is much the same. Both can hit, and the gamster guy of the two should win.

Joe Lynch has suddenly come from obscurity to a position of prominence in the bantamweight kingdom.

Two months ago Lynch was just a good bantam, and that's all. He was known through the east as a rather clever and willing fighter who could always be depended upon to do his bit in giving the fans their money's worth. But nobody had him figured as a championship contender of much class.

Then all of a sudden Lynch up and hangs the slumber punch on Kid Williams, a boy who has never been stretched out for the count, and thus Joe sprung into fame over night. He is after Pete Herman now and the little champ will probably be unable to dodge him.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Bobby Groom, pitcher of the St. Louis Browns has been purchased by the Cleveland Indians, President Dunne of the Cleveland club announced today.

JIU-JITSU MATCH FEB. 20.

S. Takahashi, the Japanese jiu-jitsu expert, will take on John Kallas, a Greek welterweight wrestler from the coast, February 20, at Pleasant Green. The match will be a combination jiu-jitsu-catch-as-catch-can affair. Takahashi prefers to take on the heavyweights, but is following the policy of meeting all comers.

GREIGHTON BEATS DRAKE.
OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 15.—Creighton basketball team easily defeated Drake here tonight by a score of 25 to 11. Kearney, of the Creighton team, featured, making 21 points for the winners. Hawley made every point scored by the Drake team.

M'GRAW THINKS DOYLE IS RIGHT MAN

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 16.—A change from one city to another often has a great effect on a ball player's play. The influence brought to bear by the manager, the associates on the club very often will show their effect on the player's form.

It is on these possible influences that John McGraw is counting in his recent trade which brings Larry Doyle back to the Giants.

A few years ago Doyle was among the greatest infielders in the game. One year he led the National league in batting. On another year he was one of the leading sluggers of the organization. During this time his mechanical play in the field was superb. Doyle began to go back after an accident, which kept him out of the game for the greater part of a season, and since McGraw traded him to Chicago for Heinie Zimmerman a couple of seasons ago, his play has not been what was expected of him.

McGraw needs a veteran second

MAY STAR SINCE GIANTS HAVE HIM

Joe Wilhoit.

Joe Wilhoit didn't seem to be greatly valued by the Pirates when they had him and he somehow didn't get along with the Boston Braves, but it seems that he's going to star with the Giants. McGraw believes that Wilhoit has all the class and expects him to show it this season. Joe joined the Giants in the middle of last season.

baseball to take the place of the temperamental Herzog. A player of the Doyle type would help balance an infield made up of Zimmerman and Fletch.

And Doyle should play better ball for the Cubs. Doyle was able to play for the Cubs. Doyle was not satisfied in Chicago, and that undoubtedly had a great deal to do with the character of his play.

McGraw is evidently counting on this, and hopes Doyle will be able to come back with his big war club and set the league afire again in the batting department.

GOT IT AT LAST.

The man in the drug store was perplexed. Try as he would he could not remember what his wife had told him to get. Presently he brightened up. "Say, name over a few young people's societies."

"Christian Endeavor?" began the druggist.

"No."

"Young People's Union?"

"No."

"Epworth League?"

"That's it! That's it! Give me a cents worth of Epworth salts."—Boston Transcript.

MYSTIC SHRINERS SELLING FLOUR

Sack Changes Hands Fifteen Times and Travels Many Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 11.—John D. McGilvray, Potentate of San Francisco Temple of the Shrine of the Mystical Order of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, recently sold the sack of flour which was the subject of the now famous "Shrine of the Mystical Order of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan" started by Clarence F. Pratt, historian of Islam Temple. The latest sale of the flour was by Khedive Temple of Norfolk, Va., recently, bringing the total sales to date to $15,747.56. The next sale will be held by Crescent Temple, at Trenton, N. J., on February 19, when Walter E. Edge, governor of New Jersey, will be initiated at a shrine ceremony.

From New Jersey the sack goes back to Virginia to Kaxim Temple at Roanoke. It will then visit Connecticut, Indiana, and on May 3, India Temple at Oklahoma City will have their Golden anniversary and India Temple claims they will pass the highest sale made by any temple up to that time. Although Bagdad Temple at Butte, Mont., on December 14, sold the sack for $1,359.61, "Sunny Jim" McCandless, Imperial Oriental Guide of the Mystical Shrine of North America, says if the sack is returned to Honolulu that Alaha Temple will raise $10,000 or $20,000 more than their last sale. Potentate McGilvray of Islam will take the sack of flour to the Imperial Council at Atlantic City in June and expects to raise $25,000 at this gathering.

As the sack is to visit every temple in North America, the Shriners expect to raise half a million for the American Red Cross. The sack has now traveled 11,000 miles and has been in Iowa, Ohio, Alabama, Montana, Wyoming, Honolulu, and Virginia. The Laubela covering woven by the Honolulu Shriners, has been covered over by a cow hide placed on the sack by Algeria Temple at Helena, Mont. The Butte shriners placed on the outside of the cowhide a copper band and fez lined by themselves. The sack has already worn out two ordinary flour sacks.

Director General of Railroads McAdoo has appointed a commission to recommend action on wage and labor questions before the Government Railroad administration, including wage demands of the railroad brotherhoods.
